Cody Allen James & Good Co. and Coyote Williams

Date and Time: Saturday, January 14 9:00 pm

Address: 163 Pembroke St. W., Pembroke, ON, K8A 5N3

Shine up those boots and tuck in that shirt tail cause Cody Allen James is coming to town, and boy, he's in Good Company. This one-of-a-kind assemblage of talent is truly one night only, so don't say you had to miss the First Rodeo. Head to Lasso Live at 9 p.m. on January 14 for all the action.

CODY ALLEN JAMES & GOOD CO.

“Born and raised in rural Ontario, Cody Allen James spent the lion’s share of his early years back in the fields of his family’s farm. Raised on an equal blend of Bluegrass and Rock n Roll, Cody began playing guitar in his early teens. However, his natural sense of rhythm and song structure quickly led him to become a go-to drummer for many local hardcore and punk acts. James graduated from his hometown scene and left for Toronto, where he continued to hone his skills as a drummer and vocalist in numerous garage rock and hardcore acts. All the while he had been quietly amassing a catalogue of songs of an entirely different variety - simple, bare, and honest. The pandemic hit bringing all other musical activities to halt, but Cody's songwriting only accelerated. Sensing he was really onto something, he commissioned the skills of some of his favorite players he has met over the years and had them cut tracks remotely on what would become his self-produced debut. Inspired by the success of his first outing, Cody's focus has become singular and his well of material overflowing. He has relocated to Kingston to have more time and space to invest in his craft - a decision that pays daily dividends. These days he can be found writing songs in Portsmouth Village."

COYOTE WILLIAMS

"A country singing carpenter from nowhere Ontario. Coyote Williams cut his teeth writing songs in garage rock bands in Peterborough and Toronto. During that time he quietly amassed a stash of simple, honest country songs."
