Park Club Social with Dragonfly Family Learning Services

Date and Time: Saturday, August 23 11:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: Rotary Park, James Street

The City of Pembroke is partnering with Dragonfly Family Learning Services to provide Park Club Socials to neurodivergent children and their families!

These socials will happen at the Rotary Park Playground.

These drop-in, free play style gatherings are designed to create social and inclusive play opportunities for children while also giving caregivers a chance to connect amongst each other!

Park Social Club is open to children of all ages, their siblings, and their caregivers. Many of the children who attend have ADHD, sensory needs, autism, or other neuro differences. We welcome any family who feels that a typical playdate or large community event might not be the right fit for their child!

Park Social Club is coordinated by Dragonfly's Director and Certified ABA Parent Educator, Erin Curtis. Erin is a neurodiverse professional with over a decade of experience supporting neurodivergent children and their families while also raising her own neurodivergent daughter!

THE STEPCREW: Celtic Music & Dance Show

Date and Time: Tuesday, August 26 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 401 Isabella Street, Pembroke

LOVE CELTIC MUSIC AND DANCE?

The StepCrew is bringing their spectacular production to Pembroke's Festival Hall on Tuesday, August 26th. Founded by Ottawa Valley step dancers Jon and Nathan Pilatzke and Irish dancer Cara Butler, The StepCrew ensemble has created a remarkable performance piece praised by critics and audiences alike. This show features nine of the best fiddlers, dancers and musicians on the Celtic music scene today. They will take you on a musical and geographical journey highlighting three different styles of percussive dance--our distinctive Ottawa Valley step dance, traditional Irish stepdance, and North American tap dance. From the moment this group bursts onto the stage with their energetic choreography, sparkling personalities, and exceptional musical talent, it is apparent why The StepCrew is an instant crowd-pleaser. One show only at 7:30 pm; reserved seating tickets at www.festivalhall.ca.
